Stockholders Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Newberry County Alliance Warehouse Company will be held at Prosperity the 29th instant, at 11 o'clock a. m.

The best physic—Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Easy to take. Pleasant in effect. For sale at Smith's drug store, Newberry, and Aull, Hentz & Co., Pomaria.

To the Managers

County Chairman Goggans requests us to state to the managers of the primary election, to be held on Tuesday next, that the boxes are now ready to be delivered to them, and can be had by calling at his office.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a world wide reputation for its cures. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale at Smith's drug store, Newberry, and Aull, Hentz & Co., Pomaria.

Severely Injured by a Mule.

It was reported here yesterday morning that Mr. Arthur Maybin, a young man living in the Maybinton section of this county, had been killed by a mule. Later it was learned that he had been kicked in the head and breast, and the wound, though serious, was not likely to prove fatal.

Henry L. Shattuck of Shellsburg, Iowa, was cured of a stomach trouble with which he had been afflicted for years, by four boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He had previously tried many other remedies and a number of physicians without relief. For sale at Smith's drug store, Newberry, and Aull, Hentz & Co., Pomaria.

Politics in Sparta and Richland

Mr. T. G. Williams returned on Saturday from a two weeks stay in Sparta and Richland counties. In talking of the political situation in those counties, Mr. Williams said that for governor Sparta county would give Jim Tillman a large majority and that Tillman would also carry Richland by a good majority.

A Necessary Precaution.

Don't neglect a cold. It is worse than unpleasant. It is dangerous. By using One Minute Cough Cure you can cure it at once. Alleviates inflammation, clears the head, soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane. Cures coughs, croup, throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Children like it. W. E. Pelham & Son.

A Deserved Promotion.

Mr. B. A. Hawkins of this county has received at the hands of the State commissioner a deserved promotion to one of the most responsible positions in his gift. He went to Columbia a few years ago as his private secretary, from that he was promoted to bookkeeper in the Revenue Department, and on August 1st he was promoted to the position of bookkeeper of the entire business. Mr. Hawkins' many friends in Newberry congratulate him on his promotion.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Riser expels all poisons from the system and acts as a tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 E. High street, Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Riser with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. W. E. Pelham & Son.

A Brave Soldier.

B. F. Day, a survivor of Co. B., Orr's Rifles, was anxious to attend the reunion at Due West, but was not able to do so. He lives in Newberry and is hard at work in his crop.

Frank Day was one of the bravest and best soldiers of the army of Northern Virginia, always in place and faithful and constant to the end. He deserves well of the people.—Abbeville Medium.

His Sight Threatened.

"While picnicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Ia. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for awhile we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is sure cure. Beware of counterfeits. W. E. Pelham & Son.

T. J. W.'s Question Answered.

"T. J. W." in his letter in another column asks the question, if a voter lives in one township and is enrolled on a club in another, or if a club is on a township line, and voters enrolled who live in different townships, how they should vote legally. We referred the question to the county chairman and his ruling is that in every case the voter must vote for the magistrate in the township in which the club is in which he is enrolled, regardless of where he lives.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Boker, of Bookwalter, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it would do good if used according to directions. In two days the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale at Smith's drug store, Newberry, and Aull, Hentz & Co., Pomaria.

Death of Mrs. J. H. M. Kinard.

Mrs. Florence V. Kinard, wife of Mr. J. H. M. Kinard, of the Observer, died at her home in this city yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. She had been in ill health for several months, but the end was not expected so early. She was under the kind and careful treatment of Dr. O. B. Mayer, and everything known to medical science was done for her, but to no avail. Mrs. Kinard was a noble woman; a good neighbor, and a kind and affectionate wife and mother. She leaves a husband, four children, and a large circle of relatives to mourn her departure. The children are, Mrs. E. S. McNeill, of Augusta, Miss Ethel, Mr. Julian E. and George M. Kinard, of this city—all were with her at her death.

We extend our heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved family in this their sad hour.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock, short service at the house at that hour. Interment at Rosemont immediately afterwards.

Man Will Be Boys.

In the excitement of a lively exercise like boat-racing or ball-playing, they will strain their muscles and go home limping and sore. Then they are glad they have Perry Davis' Painkiller on hand to soothe the quivering nerves; to penetrate the nerves with warmth and healing power. It has relieved the pain of two generations of Americans. Large bottles 25 and 50 cents.

BACHMAN CHAPEL LETTER.

All the News Around Bachman Chapel and Union Academy Interestingly Told by T. J. W.

Mrs. P. L. Wise is quite sick again. There is other sickness, but glad to say none of a serious nature.

Mr. R. H. Kibler spent a few days the first of the week with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Epps, returning home on Tuesday evening. This is another one of our good neighbor boys who has made his home in the Long Lane section.

Mrs. Matt Stone, of the Newberry Cotton Mills, came down a little more than a week ago to visit her son, Levi. We are sorry to learn that she was taken quite ill with fever.

There will be Children's Day at St. Paul's church on Thursday, the 28th inst.

Mr. Jno. I. Sheeley was elected by the council to represent this congregation at the Lutheran conference which meets at Mt. Olivet, embracing 5th Sunday.

Mr. Editor, and dear family, we extend to you our heartfelt sympathy in the bereavement of your dear son, Herman. This is a heavy yoke put upon you. The summons have come at the time when the joy of your heart could be least spared. When most prized, most needed, most loved, this dear boy, which has been plucked from your household, was full of future promise, and only those who have the cross to bear can realize how sad it is, but we must remember that the darkest of all clouds has the brightest bow in them. These gloomy portals are not to hold thy loved and just bearer. The land of forgetfulness, where thy bereaved treasures lie is not a winter of unbroken darkness and desolation. A glorious springtime of revival is promised, when the mortal shall put on immortality and the corruptible shall be clothed with incorruption. The God who brought you into the furnace will lead you through; he has never failed in the case of any of his poor afflicted ones to realize his own precious promise. "As thy day is, so shall thy strength be." It is only through the grace of God that we can find comfort in these sad hours of afflictions. We feel proud to say that Herman was a good boy. We always found him quiet and peaceable, faithful to duty, and was beloved very much by all who knew him.

Miss Cora Dominick will close her school at Union next Friday. She has proved her faithfulness to the patrons of Union academy for the past school term. The patrons have also proved their appreciation for her noble service by re-electing her for the next school term. She only missed one vote out of fifteen, with twenty-two applications.

It has been a blessed privilege that I have enjoyed from the bottom of my heart ever since a boy to go down and worship at my old mother church, St. Pauls. It was here about thirty-three years ago when I made my sacred vows to my God, and my name was inscribed upon the church book. Last Sunday, in company with my friend, Mr. L. I. Feagle, we went down and again enjoyed this privilege. When I got there and found the same dear old pulpit standing in the same dear old pulpit pointing out the way of salvation with the same dear old hand that first took me by the hand and welcomed me into the church. When I realized this my soul was filled with tears. The text was a well selected one for the occasion. You will find it in 1st Peter 4-12. Read the whole chapter. I don't think that I will ever meet with a people whose hearts seemed to be more sympathetic than the congregation of St. Pauls showed for their old pastor last Sunday. The council held a meeting just before preaching, taking into consideration the wilful, malicious slanders that has so freely been circulating on Rev. J. A. Sligh for the past month or two. Mr. Jno. C. Aull stated that the council had unanimously agreed to investigate those slanders now in circulation, and to use their most strenuous efforts to exonerate their pastor from those wilful charges. We most heartily commend the actions of the council and trust that they may not leave a stone unturned until the founders of these slanders are made known and brought to justice. When we think what lying tongues can do in trying to destroy, not only the happiness and pleasures of a life so well spent, but also intending to bring his old gray hairs down to fill a grave of degradation and shame. Yes, when we think of such wilful intentions our indignation rises to a feeling unthwarted. It is well known that these slanders started from among people who are not friendly with Mr. Sligh, and it is plain to see that it is nothing more or less than lying tongues trying to vindicate their vengeance. What shall we say of men of such unreasonable and malicious character? What does God say? "Vengeance is mine and I will repay." Every corresponding element in us should instinctively rise to rebuke such offenders.

A man who will come to you with a lying tongue to make you believe something bad upon his fellowman is worse than an atheist.

Of all the vices, there is none more criminal, more mean and more ridiculous than lying. The end designed by it is very seldom accomplished. In this particular case we are proud to say it is not, for only those who have been unfriendly with Mr. Sligh has believed a single accusation that has been reported upon him, and his friends are closer to him today than they have ever been; but we are not done with lying tongues. Let us further notice the nature of a lie. It generally proceeds from vain cowardice, and a revengeful disposition, and sometimes from a mistake of self defense. But there's different kind of lies. The intention of the lie in mention is to stamp the character with disgrace, and is forced with a charge of cruelty. This is the most malicious lie that can be uttered. These kind of lies are told expressly to injure. But again I repeat, thank God, that they have failed to answer the purpose in this case that they were intended for, and may God have mercy upon the liar is the conclusion of this paragraph.

Mr. Editor, will you please explain the following question for the benefit of some of our voters? Suppose A lives over in No. 11 and he has his name on a club roll in No. 10 will he be allowed to vote for the magistrate in No. 10? We will carry the question a little farther: Here is Swilton club, she is a line club with a part enrolled from 9 and 10. How ought these people to vote legally?

Notwithstanding the rain last Saturday morning it seemed that the people were full bent on going to Children's Day at St. Philip's. The rain kept us back for a considerable while, and thought once that the jig was up, but the chickens were killed and the cakes and pies were baked, and it seemed that there was no other place to eat them except at St. Philip's. So we were in the hands of old Mrs. W. and the little ones, and we had to obey. We got there a little after 11 o'clock and found that there were plenty of others in the same boat.

Rev. P. H. E. Derrick introduced the speakers. The program was carried out to a letter just as it was stated in a former issue of The Herald and News. The children all acted their part well, not only reflecting credit upon themselves, but also upon Miss Grace Kinard, that noble Christian woman, who we were informed, had all the training under her care. There were between four and five hundred people present, who, all seemed to enjoy themselves very pleasantly. There was no speaking after dinner, or at least I mean no public speaking.

Supervisor, John M. Schumpert, will be at the Aunt Polly Kinard ford next Saturday morning for the purpose of letting a contract to build a bridge across said creek. This has been much needed for a considerable while.

This week will about wind up fodder pulling, that is the first planting of corn.

The cotton crop will about measure up with that of last year. With no serious damage with the last planting of corn the crop will at least be 40 per cent. above that of last year.

Funeral Notice

The relatives, friends and acquaintances of Mr. and Mrs. James H. M. Kinard are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Kinard this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Services at the house at that hour. Interment in Rosemont cemetery.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, in a—that is the order of a woman's preference. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Ross's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at W. E. Pelham & Son.

Aid Society Meeting.

There will be a special meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society at the Lutheran church Monday afternoon at 5.30 o'clock. By order of the president.

Mrs. W. A. Young.

Mrs. O. L. Schumpert, Secy.

Store Robbed.

The store of Dominick & Sample, on Main street, known as the city market, was broken into and robbed Wednesday night. Entrance was gained by breaking a pane of glass out of the rear window and a small boy was put through it and unfasted the door. Various goods to the amount of about $10 were taken. The police are working up the case.

A Day's Outing.

We enjoyed a day's outing this week with Messrs. Van Smith, J. H. Hair, Wm. Bedenbaugh, J. W. Vineyard and W. H. Harris on Little River, catching the finny tribe. They are certainly adepts in the art—if art it is, and Dr. Smith can beat a didapper in water. We regret that space permits a write-up of the trip. We would like especially to tell of Dr. Vineyard's "cooning" the log—ask him about it. Crops in that part of the county are good, and Mr. Tom Reeder has the finest melon patch we ever saw.

A. G. Allen's New Orleans Minstrel is Coming.

A genuine old-fashioned Southern cake walk by real Southern dandies. Allen's New Orleans Minstrels under canvas.

This is the first Minstrel Company in the United States to appear under canvas. Mr. Allen is the originator of the idea. The interior of his tent is arranged with a mammoth stage and scenery the same as an opera house, but of course on a much larger scale. Owning to the large seating capacity of the tent, which is two thousand, the company is enabled to show for the extremely low price of 15 and 25 cents, thus guaranteeing the largest Minstrel production in the world at the lowest price of admission. Monday 25th.
